—DEDICATION—

The students of Overbrook Senior High School would like to thank these faculty members. They have given us their time, support, and effort to make the best of our educations. We appreciate all they have done and sincerely hope their retirement brings them many enjoyable years!

Mr. Lubamersky, a senior English teacher, has taught at Overbrook for 29 years.

In his leisure time after retiring he will enjoy reading, eating, sleeping, painting, writing and watching TV. True relaxation.

As a last word of advice to his students Mr Lu says, "Don't follow the crowd. Be yourself. The 'in-crowd' is usually the 'in-trouble crowd': spiritually, physically, scholastically and financially."

Mr. Schukis has taught business math and accounting at Overbrook for 31 years.

He tells his students: "Since you're in the classroom for 42 minutes, give 100% attention and you will learn and understand. Education is understanding."

After retirement Mr. Schukis is moving to upstate New York where he will write a book on himself, and keep active.

While remembering his time spent at Overbrook, Mr. Schukis said, "I have had many high-points and some low . . . name it and I have experienced it."

Mr. Gambino has taught at Overbrook High School for a little over 17 years. He teaches electrical shop in the vocational training area of our school.

Mr. Gambino has devoted many years to teaching a valuable skill and helping students make the best of their education.

RETIREMENTS

Mrs. Jester has worked as our school nurse for over 28 years. During this time she emphasizes she has met many lovely people. Upon retiring she regrets moving away from so many friends.

While recalling the years at Overbrook, Mrs. Jester feels students today are more independent and more anxious to be on their own. She then added, "with this in mind, the most important thing to do is to finish your education."

In her new free time, Mrs. Jester plans to raise a garden, knit, read, go bowling, and sing. She also plans to teach an adult Sunday School in State College, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Jester says she has loved all her time she has spent at Overbrook. She especially liked when students thank her for her work.

Mrs. Beeler has been a valuable part of our school system for twenty-five years. Twelve of these years have been spent at Overbrook Senior as a librarian's secretary. Mrs. Beeler says she will miss "coming to school" everyday. She has always enjoyed the staff and students she has worked with.

Mrs. Beeler did have one bit of advice for the students, that is to get a high school diploma. She said that it is "small but extremely valuable piece of paper."

IN LOVING MEMORY

Dawn Renee O'Neill
1968-1987

*My heart grieves in sorrow
For knowing you'll be gone today
As well as tomorrow.
And with each passing day,
I shall indeed remember
How different, yet the same,
we both were
And though time may seem
To stand still, as in a dream,
The memories of times which have gone by
Will arise from where they once lie
Within the pages of my mind
To only remind me of the kind,
And gentle friend
You've been to me.
So, it grieves me
To know we are saying farewell today.
But fate, may it be so,
Won't make this the end,
Or the last time which we'll ever meet.*

We had a super hockey team this year, with a lot of experienced and skilled players. It was the first year we went to camp; we had a good time; while gaining practice and skill. We were very competitive in our conference, beating a few teams ranked in the state and ending our season with a winning record. Special thanks to Coach Freed and Quinton for a job well done—Charlene—Captain

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Harmelin is one of many important people in our school. As principal, he enjoys helping and working with students. Designing programs to assist with future decisions and career advice is one of his main priorities. Mr. Harmelin has only been with us for a short while and we hope he will be here for many years to come.

Naturally, the vice-principals and teachers are equally important to our education. The teachers of O S R H make this school what it is. They have much to offer and it is a shame not to take advantage of their knowledge. We have to keep the teachers on their toes!

FRESHMEN

CLASS OFFICERS

The Freshman class of 1986-87 was one of the largest in Overbrook history. Guided by their student Advisor Mrs. French, and their officers, Jody Philpott, Leslie Johnson, Tom Corbett, Melissa Chamberlain, they managed to make the year a great success. They sponsored a profitable fund raiser, and held a semi formal cotillion in the spring, and proved to be one of the most "spirited" classes in the school. Their enthusiasm will carry them through many happy years here at Overbrook.

CLASS LEADERS

Mr. Peddle, an outstanding teacher, and Sophomore class advisor has done a great deal for us this year. He likes to help his students plan activities and fundraisers. He hopes to get more students into activities such as the dance.

The Sophomore class officers—Tom Beatty, Melissa Shadrick, Tom DiGangi, and Lynette Fieger— fought hard so after a ten year absence, the Sophomore Cotillion was brought back. The Cotillion this year was very successful with the help of Mr. Peddle, the Sophomore officers, and the Sophomore Class. We thank them all.

JUNIORS

CLASS LEADERS

The Junior Class has many responsibilities and Mr. Robinson, the Class advisor makes sure everything runs smoothly.

The biggest responsibility was the running of the prom, which included such problems as finding a place, picking a menu, selecting prom favors and invitations, and obtaining a musical group. It was a lot of hard work but the class officers, Angela White, Vanessa Suckle, Kim Lorraine, and Tracey Senteneri, loved the challenge and worked well together.

"Graduation"

Graduation is here at last
I can't believe twelve years
Have passed

I was just a kid when first
I came
Somehow I feel I'm not the same

I learned to read. I learned
To write
They even taught me
Wrong from right

There were some good times
A few bad times
But not it's over
I'm kind of sad
I know I'll sit and reminisce
About who and what I'll miss

And now that day is finally
Here
I'm not ashamed to shed
A tear'

 The same here what will I do without you kiddo? I luv ya too!
 Goodbye ya ll, we luv ya, and we ll miss ya!

L'AGENDA

COLOPHON

The 1987 L'Agenda of Overbrook Regional High School was published by G. Earl Nichols Associates, Inc. of Pennsauken, New Jersey. All printing was done using the offset lithography process with a press run of 470 copies.

The paperstock is 80lb West Vaco Gloss Enamel. Endsheets are 65lb West Vaco White. Cover printed in four color process.

Cover stock is a varnished white Kivar printed in four color process using custom color prints and 100% process blue as spot color for the title. The cover design was an original idea by Heather Briles.

Six hundred copies of a forty page preview booklet using a four color process cover with gold stamping and GBC bound were distributed to the students in May, prior to the book's publication in August.

Approximately 2200 black and white and 800 color frames were shot for the final photo selection in the 1987 L'Agenda. Color reproductions are from color prints. Individual portraits were taken by G. Earl Nichols Associates, Inc., our official school photographer. Activity, group, sports, and candid photography was done by student and professional photographers. Our professional photographers were Sue Reehm and Paul Kowal. Our student photographers were Michelle Bahm, Brian Beatty, and John Wilkins.

The basic type face is Souvenir Light. Body and story copy is 11/12 Souvenir Light with captions in 9/11 Souvenir Light. Accent faces used were Souvenir Medium Italic and Souvenir Light Italic. Cover, Title and Divider subtitles are Gillies Gothic Bold (Chartpak) enlarged and reduced to fit layout.

All copy and layouts were done by the editorial staff. A variety of layouts were created with the support of the modular pattern using screens of black and rules lines. All rules and screens were done in plant. Philip Werner, Pete Mitchell, Tara Ford, Jessica Sauntner and Beth Julian compiled the sports section. Clubs and activities were worked on by Shelly Mackey, Tara Ford, Brenda Striewski, Stacy Stoll, Jessica Sauntner. The senior section was conceived by Heather Briles. Support was also given by Essia Washington, Paula Riddick, Rhonda Moore, Lisa Warrick, Dionne Whittington, Michelle Mombo, and Beth Julian. Beth Szabo, Sue Roward, Linda Schenkel and Debbie Stiles provided a financial foundation by selling ads.

Invaluable support and assistance was provided by our advisor, Mrs. Margie Potts. The typing was done by Eydie Murphy with the help of the other staff.

I, Jo-Jo LaSalle, of crazy mind and not much of body, would like to leave a special thanks to those who believed in me. We won't always be together, but the memories are so clear. Let's make the best of what we have, and go out and get a coke! To Overbrook and teachers, a true impression of respectfulness.

I, Ron Delchert, leave Overbrook with good memories. I leave all my detentions to S.D. To my b/f Tony S. for all the great times we've had and more to come; remember Brig. Hang loose Tony. I don't know how you put up with me, told you I would graduate. Jeanine, my future wife, I'll always love you.

I, Kristen Duespohl, leave Overbrook all of the great times I've had here. If it wasn't for the work; high school would have been fun! To all the people at the lunch table — We had fun!
